

Ne-Chee Friendship Centre requires a

Kizhaay Anishinaabe Niin (I'm a Kind Man) Coordinator

The Kizhaay Anishinaabe Niin Coordinator is responsible for the provision of Indigenous culture-based community services focused exclusively on the engagement of Indigenous men and male youth committed to ending all forms of violence perpetrated against Indigenous women and girls.

Responsibilities:

- To provide Indigenous culture-based men's programming promotive of healing, skill building and the practice of alternative options to the use of violence
- Provide wrap-around services and a strengths-based action plan for each individual direct-service user
- Facilitate programming within correctional institutions and the provision of reintegration support for men and youth-aged males
- Educate men and youth-aged males in approaches to identifying and addressing their own abusive behaviours and implement alternative approaches to conflict resolution
- Encourage healthy violence free lifestyles through the provision of educational supports and the establishment of a supportive learning environment
- Coordinate local community events to promote Indigenous men's roles in ending violence perpetrated against Indigenous women and girls
- Create opportunities for Indigenous men and youth-aged males to engage with Elders, Traditional people, cultural and land-based activities
- Promote healing circles, peer support networks and self-help processes to assist in men's healing, positive identity development, learning alternative approaches to child discipline and intimate partner conflict resolution strategies

Qualifications:

- Post-secondary education in Indigenous studies and/or combination of an equivalent and relevant education
- Demonstrated and related work experience within an Indigenous organization or community
- Strong knowledge and awareness of Indigenous culture and history, with particular emphasis on family violence, child welfare, and the impacts of trauma
- Knowledge and experience working with justice system involving Indigenous men and male youth.
- Personal experience with, and ability to model traditional male role.
- Skills and experience in presenting workshops and facilitating groups.
- Must possess good written and oral communication skills.
- Must have excellent computer skills; Strong working knowledge of MS Word & data entry.
- Must possess a valid driver's license with access to a reliable vehicle.

Comprehensive benefit package including a pension plan

 A Current Vulnerable Persons Check will be required upon offer of employment

DEADLINE: Open Till Filled

Please submit your resume along with a cover letter to: Ne-Chee Friendship Centre - P.O. Box 241, 326 Second Street South, Kenora, ON P9N 3X3 Fax: (807) 468-5340 E-Mail: OfficeAdmin@nechee.org